

ARE YOU READY FOR GATHERING OF LEADERS?

INQUIRER SELF-ASSESSMENT

The Gathering of Leaders recruits young clergy who have demonstrated entrepreneurial skills and who possess a hope-filled vision for the Episcopal Church. Our members have been peer-nominated or nominated by their bishop. This self-assessment will help you determine if you are ready to be a part of Gathering of Leaders.

- I see myself as a creative thought leader in my local/regional context.
- I have practical, implementable strategies for spiritual and numerical church growth that I wish to share with my clergy colleagues.
- I have proven leadership skills that I have used with laity and clergy alike.
- I have 10-15 years of active ministry left in my career.
- I have a desire to deepen my network of clergy colleagues in order to impact my local ministry.
- I have a hope-filled vision of the Episcopal Church.
- I am committed to the concept of peer learning, and wish to offer as much as I receive from Gathering of Leaders.
- I have spoken with my Bishop(s) regarding the above questions and we are in agreement.

If you feel that the majority of the items above are an accurate reflection of you and your ministry, and you feel your Bishop would agree, please reach out to us to start the nomination process.
